Name	Owner	Size	Modified
demos	Me	45.3 GB	2015-05-05
	Erica	203.1 GB	2015-05-07
	Justin	33.2 GB	2015-05-10
	Me	250.7 KB	2015-03-12
	Me	300.4 MB	2015-05-18

There are no multiple link share for this case..

This screenshot is similar to the one above, but the 'Get a link' dialog box is open. It shows a URL input field with the text 'http://www.copy.com/sS16sfexsc8482'. The dialog also includes an 'Invite people' button and a 'Close' button.
